

Celeste Spencer

Teacher

Catholic Education WA

Celeste Spencer is an Early Childhood teacher with 13 years of teaching experience in mainstream Catholic schools. Throughout her career she has worked with a variety of students with additional needs and with varying levels of additional support. She has a keen interest in working with families, school support staff and outside agencies/therapists to support students with additional needs in the mainstream classroom environment.