

Julie Richards

Numero® Specialist

IETPL

Julie worked for many years as a Special Needs Education Assistant before mature age training in teaching, graduating with a Bachelor of Education (BEd) from Murdoch University.

She has been involved with Numero® since its creation some 25 years ago, being responsible for the promotion and training of the game, as well as running the Interschool Numero® Challenge each year. 2018 saw Julie take over the publishing and distribution of Numero® through her newly created company, Independent Education and Training Pty Ltd (IETPL).
